

THE DEBRECEN REVIEW

SCIENCE AND CULTURE

Quarterly of the Scientific Communities of Debrecen and the Region

VOL. XXIX. NO.13

NEW ISSUE

2022. III

Contents

FROM THE PAST OF DEBRECEN

- János Miklós Kollár*: Zilah Refugees in Debrecen, Spring 1919 263
Imre Nyul: A Forgotten Engineer from Debrecen: Kálmán Haty 276
Botond Gáborjáni Szabó: Kazinczy and the Historical Background of Debrecen Grammar: Polishing, Taste, and Strangeness 288

FILM RESEARCH IN THE WORKSHOP ZOOM

- György Kalmár*: Editor's Introduction: Film Studies in Debrecen and the Research Workshop Called ZOOM 297
Zsolt Győri: You Are What Your Borders Are: Hospitality and Fortress
Europe in the Films Last Resort and The Citizen 304
György Kalmár: Cold War and the Dilemmas of European Remembrance
Policy 314
Fanni Feldmann: Queer Migration: Western Imagination and Experience on Eastern Screens 323
Imola Bülgözdi: Documentary and Feature Film Strategies in Search of "the Truth" as Viewed in Neill Blomkamp's Film District 9 333
Zsófia O. Réti: Film Genres after #MeToo: Promising Young Woman as a
Revenge Film or Rom-Com? 343

BOOK REVIEWS

- Representations of Social Inequality in 21st Century Global Art Cinema –
(György Kalmár, ed.) -- (Anxhela Filaj) 352
Zinner Tibor: The "Road of Pains": From the Small Station of Ihel to the Big Station of Sátoraljaújhely (János Barta Jr.) 357
"Teaching Youngsters Is So Good": Studies in Honour of Ágnes Kovács
(Tünde Veres) 363
Authors of this Issue 368
Contents 369