

THE DEBRECEN REVIEW

SCIENCE AND CULTURE

Quarterly of the Scientific Communities of Debrecen and the Region

VOL. XXV. NO. 3.

NEW ISSUE

2017. III.

CONTENTS

ANNIVERSARIES OF THE REFORMATION

János Barta : Anniversaries of the Reformation	279
Károly Fekete : In Common Fate with Each Other and with Christ's Story	281
Botond Gaál : The View-forming Role of Debrecen Reformers in Hungarian Culture	287
János Csohány : The Beginnings of Reformation in Debrecen	303
Zoltán Kustár : Some Additions to the Problem of Péter Juhász Méliusz's Knowledge of Hebrew.....	307
Előd Hodossy-Takács : To Teach Right from God's Word. The 2nd Helvetic Confession and the Old Testament.	318
László Imre : The Power of „Minority” Existence. (László Németh and the Protestant Heritage).....	326
Sándor Berkesi : Zoltán Kodály and the Reformed Church Music	332

STUDIES

János Kelemen : Believing and Knowing: Theology and Science	340
Izolda Takács : Between Scylla and Charybdis	349
Miklós Gábor Fári – Erika Kurucz – Éva Domokos-Szabolcsy : New Data to the History of Hungarian Genetics I. – Memory of László Oláh	364

COMMEMORATION

Memory of Professor Mihály Beck	376
---------------------------------------	-----

BOOK REVIEWS

Reformation (Gerundium's Special Issue) (Miklós Bényei).....	377
István Dobos: Reading is Event (Anita G. Tóth).....	383
Anette Dufner–Sándor Kőműves–Erzsébet Rózsa (Eds): Autonomy and its Borders. Contemporary German and Hungarian Writings (Péter Jánosfalvi)	387
Authors of this issue.....	397
Contents	398